Summer is already well underway and before we know it we will be gearing up for a new school year. When we look back at how we spent the easy days of summer will we be happy with how we spent our time? Will we be proud of all the mornings we were able t sleep in late or all the time we spent doing mindless activities like video games or scrolling on social media? What if inste we set a goal for the summer to work relationship with Jesus? What if we up every day and made an effort to more about him and grow closer t relationship. Maybe that looks l your Bible more or working th Study. Maybe that looks like t or prayer. I feel sure if we d of our "extra" to Jesus we well spent.

If you need any resour please reach out to m library.

Have you ever heard the saying that you are the only Bible that some people will ever read? Wow, that makes me think a little bit more about what I do on a daily basis. It's true some people we know will never darken the church door. All they know about christians will come from watching how you live your life. "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity." 1 Timothy 4:12. You are never too young to make a difference for the kingdom of God.

Remember to always let your light shine so others may see Jesus through you!
