.

- Participated in clinical trials on hypertension and diabetes management; co-author of peer-reviewed publications.
- Mentored 5 residents and medical students, providing clinical training and career guidance.

Resident Physician – NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY | 07/2015 – 06/2020

- Completed rotations in Internal Medicine, Cardiology, Emergency, ICU, and Surgery.
- Managed acute patient care, performed procedures, and collaborated with multidisciplinary teams.
- Assisted in surgical procedures and post-operative patient care.
- Conducted case studies and contributed to hospital quality improvement programs.

Intern – Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, NY | 07/2014 – 06/2015

- Rotated through General Medicine, Pediatrics, and Surgery departments.
- Conducted patient assessments, medical histories, and assisted senior physicians.
- Supported vaccination campaigns and community health initiatives.

Education

Doctor of Medicine (MD) | University of New York | 2014

- Clinical rotations: Internal Medicine, Surgery, Pediatrics, Emergency Medicine
- Honors: Dean's List 2012–2014

Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Biology | University of New York | 2010

- Coursework: Human Physiology, Microbiology, Biochemistry

Licensure & Certifications

- Medical License – New York State | 2014–Present
- Board Certification – Internal Medicine | 2018
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) | 2022
- Basic Life Support (BLS) | 2023
- Advanced Trauma Life Support (ATLS) | 2021