Benjamin Butler, PA-C

NCCPA-Certified Physician Assistant

Summary

Personable and professional NCCPA-certified physician assistant with 3+ years expertise in busy, mid-sized clinic. Licensed and registered physician assistant in New York State, awarded 2018 AAPA/PAEA Preceptor of the Year, and AAPA member. Seeking to leverage successful treatment and care of over 500 patients with traumatic injuries and orthopedic emergencies to become the next physician assistant at Booth Memorial Hospital.

Experience

2016-01 - 2019-03

Orthopedic Surgery Physician Assistant

Lenox Hill Hospital, New York, NY

Key Qualifications & Responsibilities

- Treated traumatic spinal injuries, oncology, pediatrics, sports medicine, reconstructive surgery, osteomyelitis, wound infections, and other orthopedic emergencies.
- Recommended and implemented non-invasive treatments, according to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons guidelines.
- Cast and splinted limbs, recommended rehabilitative exercises, and prescribed supplements and medications to minimize pain and strengthen joints.
- Met with patients, ordered diagnostic tests, prescribed medication, ordered physical therapy, and set fractured bones.

Key Achievements

- Awarded the 2018 AAPA/PAEA Preceptor of the Year Award.

2015-01 - 2016-01

Oncology Physician Assistant

Metropolitan Hospital Center, New York, NY

Key Qualifications & Responsibilities

- Performed detailed history and physical examination of oncological patients.
- Diagnosed and treated oncological emergencies, including neutropenic fever, metastasis, SVC syndrome, and tumor lysis syndrome.
- Provided quality oncology/hematology care as guided by the physician board.

Key Achievements

- Earned “Humanitarian of the Year” acknowledgment for 2015.

Education

MS in Physician Assistant Studies

Stony Brook School of Health Technology and Management

Physician Associate Program

Completion: 2019

Relevant Coursework: Contemporary Issues in Health Care Delivery, Clinical Pharmacology, Principles and Practices of Clinical Prevention and Population Health, Research Writing for Health Professionals.

Personal Info

Phone

(718) 555-4321

E-mail

benji.butler@gmail.com

LinkedIn

linkedin.com/in/benjibutler

Skills

Ultrasound

Hematologic Disorders

Neurofeedback

Advanced Nutrition in Clinical Practice

Epidemiology

Languages

Spanish (Latin American)

Professional Working Proficiency

Bengali

Limited Working Proficiency