PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Write a summary of your qualifications and skills. Things you can mention: Number of years of experience in the field, relevant credentials, training, or education, an accomplishment that directly relates to the position, and a quality of yours aligning to what the company or studio is looking to hire. Your resume is your best marketing tool and must be error-free. Keep your wording simple and direct by only mentioning relevant information.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

JOB TITLE or TEACHING POSITION
Company // Studio Name, City, State, Country, YEAR-YEAR

- Always highlight your best accomplishments first; Do this before listing your responsibilities or basic daily tasks.
- An accomplishment is a solution you created, an action you took, or a contribution that made a positive impact.
- Show how you have created a safe and comfortable environment during your classes.

JOB TITLE or TEACHING POSITION
Company // Studio Name, City, State, Country, YEAR-YEAR

- Quantifying your accomplishments demonstrates and adds value to your application in a concrete, measurable way.
- Show positive outcomes from your accomplishments that show how you can be successful at the job position.
- Example: Managed 8 promotional yoga studio social media posts per month, leading to 25% class size growth.

JOB TITLE or TEACHING POSITION
Company // Studio Name, City, State, Country, YEAR-YEAR

- To show your interest, curate your resume and cover letter to reflect the company's objective and job position.
- Begin your sentences with strong verbs to make your resume strong and grab a reader's attention.
- Improve client satisfaction, increase performance, take initiative, develop and implement a plan, and handle a crisis.
